Why do we collect this information?

We need to process data to enter into an employment contract with you and to meet our obligations under your employment contract. For example, we need to process your data to provide you with an employment contract, to pay you in accordance with your employment contract and to administer benefit and pension entitlements.

In some cases, we need to process data to ensure we are complying with our legal obligations. For example we are required to check your right to work in the UK, to deduct tax, to comply with health and safety laws and to enable you to take periods of leave to which you are entitled. For certain posts, it is necessary to carry out criminal records checks to ensure individuals are permitted to carry out the role in question.

Throughout the period of your employment with us, and for as long as is necessary to meet our legal obligations after that, we will process personal data about you for the purposes connected with your employment and the termination of your employment.

The information is being collected for the following purposes:

1. Managing the employment relationship and dealing with any issues arising from it through the Trust's employment related policies
2. Payment of salaries, expenses, employee benefits and statutory payments
3. Equalities Monitoring to maintain and promote equality in the workplace
4. Health & Safety and ensuring a safe work environment
5. Providing facilities such as ICT, communication systems and monitoring usage of these
6. Applying for licences under the appropriate personal or traders licence.

The legal basis each purpose is set out below:

Legal basis	Purpose
Consent
Performance of a contract	1, 2, 4, 5
Legal obligation	2 (where statutory), 3, 4,6
Vital interests
Task carried out in the public interest
Legitimate interests

Employee monitoring may be carried out for operational requirements such as providing IT facilities, lone working, using mobile devices and vehicle trackers.

*Some special categories of personal data, such as information about health or medical conditions is processed to carry out employment law obligations (such as those in relation to employees with disabilities and for health and safety purposes). Information about trade union membership is processed to allow us to make payroll deductions for union subscriptions.

*Where we process other special categories of personal data, such as information about ethnic origin, religious belief, disability sexual orientation, or transgender status, this is done to allow us to better perform the equality duty. Equal opportunities statistical data is anonymised. You are entirely free to decide whether or not to provide such data and there are no consequences of not doing so.

Where do we collect information from?

We collect information from you:

- Through paper, electronic and telephone correspondence with you, through forms you have completed and interviews and meetings you have attended
- From any representatives you have asked to act on your behalf such as but not limited to solicitors, employment tribunals, trade unions and ACAS
- From application forms on recruitment websites such as but not limited to MyJobScotland
- From your passport, driving licence or other identity documents

In some cases, we collect personal data about you from third parties such as

- Referees who you have given us permission to contact including previous employers
- Criminal record check providers such as Disclosure Scotland as permitted by law
- Medical professionals including our Occupational Health provider
- Other members of staff, clients or customers through complaints or grievances
- Employee benefit providers where you have provided your data on their website such as the Childcare Vouchers Scheme or Cycle to Work Scheme
- Driver licence check providers such as Drivercheck

Data is stored in a range of different places, including in your personnel file, in our HR & Payroll management systems and in other IT systems including the email system.

Who might we share your information with?

We will keep your information safe and secure. We will have systems, processes and training designed to achieve this.

Falkirk Council provide the Trust with HR and Payroll services.

We will not share your information internally or with Falkirk Council unless this is necessary for the performance of duties and Trust business. For example, we may share details about any absences with Falkirk Council's Human Resources if dealing with absence management. We may also share your data with:

- Any person to which we are legally obliged to disclose any of your personal data including HM Revenue & Customs, The Department for Work and Pensions, The Child Support Agency and The Health & Safety Executive
- Any person we appoint to provide services to or on behalf of us. This includes those who process data on our behalf who can be involved in delivering or assisting in or advising on the provision or implementation of benefits in connection with your employment including BACS Payments Limited, Occupational Health, Employee Benefits and Training Providers
- Law enforcement (Police) and other regulatory bodies such as Falkirk Council, Scottish Social Services Council and Disclosure Scotland
- Falkirk Council and their external advisors
- Pension Providers including but not limited to Scottish Public Pensions Agency and Falkirk Council Pension Fund
- Trade Unions, on the basis of collective bargaining, if you are a member of that trade union
- Other organisations where there are shared service or supervision arrangements
- Grant funders, such as Scottish Government, where your employment is related to that funding and the sharing is required for audit purposes.
- Any person specified by you, where you ask us to provide a reference to that person such as financial institutions or prospective employers
- In the context of the transfer of part of our business, to a prospective new employer, for example if the trust decided to set up an arms length organisation to deliver part of its services.
- The Trust has a duty to protect public funds. We may check your information within the Trust and with Falkirk Council for verification purposes and/or for the prevention of fraud. We may share your information with other organisations where we are required to do so for the purposes of the prevention or detection of crime.

The Trust considers that, being an organisation partly funded by Council Tax, it has a legitimate interest to data match employee records with Council Tax records. This is covered in your employment contract.

Registration with the Trust's ICT service provider means that your name, job title, work location, work email address and work telephone number will be displayed on the internal telephone directory which is shared with Falkirk Council. You can elect to add a photo to this profile which will not be used for any other purpose.

Do you use any automated processes to make decisions about me?

The trust does not use profiling or automated decision-making processes in relation to employees. Some processes are semi-automated (such as anti-fraud data matching) but a human decision maker will always be involved before any decision is reached in relation to you.

Will we send your information outwith the UK?

We do not transfer your information outwith the UK. Where it becomes necessary to do so we would ensure appropriate safeguards are in place.

How long do we keep hold of your information? (retention period)

We keep your information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for. As a guide, we anticipate your personal data will be held as follows:

- Salary information - 7 years after the financial year the payment was made in
- Personnel Records - 7 years after termination or 25 years after termination if you are employed in a post which requires PVG Membership
- Accident and incident reporting - 10 years after the accident/incident
- Employment Tribunal Claims – 6 years after the case is closed

Please contact the Data Protection Officer if you would like more details.

Do I have to provide my personal data to you?

You have some obligations under your employment contract to provide us with data.

Where the data is needed to enter into a contract with you, or carry out that contract, if you do not provide this data we may not be able to enter into, or continue, the contract. For example, if you do not provide your bank details, we may not be able to pay you.

In some circumstances, the provision of your data is a statutory requirement. This includes:

- Documentation confirming your right to work in the UK – if you don't provide this, we may not be able to employ you, or we may need to terminate your contract.
- Statutory information you must provide to us if you wish to take maternity, paternity, adoption, shared parental leave or parental leave, or claim statutory payments in relation to such leave. If you don't provide this, we may not be able to comply with our legal obligations and / or provide relevant benefits to you.
- Gender, Date of Birth, National Insurance Number and Address details in order that we can create a valid payroll record for Income Tax and National Insurance purposes

You do not need to provide us with equality monitoring data (ethnic origin, religion, disability, sexual orientation or transgender status) however if you do so this will be held in the strictest confidence and used to help us comply with our Public Sector Equality Duty.

What are my rights in relation to the information held about me?

You have the following rights:

- To see any information held about you by making a subject access request.
- To withdraw consent at any time, where the legal basis for processing is consent.
- To data portability, where the legal basis for processing is (i) consent or (ii) performance of a contract.
- To request rectification or erasure of your information, where data protection legislation allows this.

Do I have a right to complain about the way information has been used?

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, please let us know and we will try to resolve this. If you are still concerned, you can contact the Information Commissioner:
